LAUNCH OF THE DOHA SERIES:
Golnaz Fathi - Doha Series No. 1
March 15 - May 3, The Third Line Doha

In 2009 The Third Line launches The Doha Series, which will see four selected artists travel to Doha, Qatar and create a unique body of work in response to the experience of the city.

This signature project shall result in an annual series by artists whose work covers the range of mediums and styles of contemporary Middle Eastern art, created for exhibition at The Third Line, Doha. The Third Line's publishing division, Works on Paper, will publish a book at the end of each year documenting the process.

The first artist of The Doha Series will be Golnaz Fathi, a classically trained calligrapher whose paintings seem to break with traditional rules. Fathi will be in Doha for the opening of her exhibition on 15th March. For more info, log on to www.thethirdlinedoha.com

DOHA DEBATES, April

The Doha Debates are chaired by the award-winning former BBC correspondent and interviewer Tim Sebastian, who founded them in 2004 and secured their editorial independence.

Televised eight times a year by BBC World News, the Debates are based on a centuries-old format, refined by the famous Oxford Union. They focus on a single, controversial motion, with two speakers for and against. Once they have outlined their arguments, each speaker is questioned by the chairman and the discussion is then opened up to the audience for argument and a final electronic vote.

The 350-strong audiences are drawn mainly from Qatar's student body and come from all over the Arab and Islamic worlds.

Seats are available to adults (over 15 years of age) living or visiting Doha, Qatar. Tickets are free of charge (350 seats for each Debate). To attend the Debates, visit www.thedohadebates.com
